Parashat Chayei Sara — Questions to Think About

1. Kindness as a test

The servant did not test Rebekah for beauty or wealth — he tested her for kindness, in a small act at a well. What do the small, unseen kindnesses in a person's life tell us about them?

2. Saying yes

Rebekah's family asked her, "Will you go with this man?" — and she said, "I will go." When have you said yes to a journey before you knew how it would end?

3. Comfort after loss

Isaac is comforted after his mother's death when Rebekah enters Sarah's tent. What helps a home feel like home again after someone is gone?

Take one question into your week, or share all three at the table.